

Sadhu Prof. V. Rangarajan, Founder Trustee of Sister Nivedita Academy, Sri Bharatamata Gurukula Ashram and Bharatamata Mandir at Bangalore, entered into dedicated service for the Hindu cause over five decades ago. Drawn into the spiritual field, he received initiation from H.H. Yogi Ramsuratkumar, Godchild, Tiruvannamalai. (For more details, check out <http://sribharatamatamandir.org> or write to sadhu.rangarajan@gmail.com)

Sadhu has written a book called Glimpses of a Great Yogi, which is a grand and comprehensive compendium on the life and mission of one of the greatest Avatars of the Divine in the recent period in the history of Bharatavarsha — Bhagavan Yogi Ramsuratkumar, Godchild, Tiruvannamalai. In this work, the conversations of the sadhu with Bhagavan are presented in detail. It covers the sadhu's report to Bhagavan about each and every activity, and the permission and directions that Bhagavan lovingly provided.

This book, Sparkles from Glimpses of A Great Yogi contains the portions covering the life and mission of Yogi Ramsuratkumar, along with the interactions of the sadhu with the Yogi. Online versions of this book and "Glimpses of a Great Yogi" are available at <http://sribharatamatamandir.org>.

Yogi Ramsuratkumar on Glimpses of a Great Yogi:

"Rangarajan, by writing this book, has made this beggar a 'Yogi' – not an ordinary Yogi, but a 'Great Yogi'—and people, after reading it, come here to see the 'Yogi', but see only a beggar!", saying this Yogi Ramsuratkumar, who used to always address Himself as a beggar, burst into laughter.

On an another occasion, Yogi Ramsuratkumar remarked, "The book is very attractive. People are interested to know who this great Yogi is. But, when they come and see here, they see no symptoms of a Yogi, they see only a beggar here!" The Yogi started laughing.

Yogi Ramsuratkumar once said to the author's daughter, "Because of your father's work (Glimpses of a Great Yogi) people are crowding up here. This is your father's work. This Beggar has no rest now."

Sparkles from Glimpses of A Great Yogi
Sadhu Prof. V. Rangarajan

Sparkles from Glimpses of A Great Yogi

Sadhu Prof. V. Rangarajan

A Sister Nivedita Academy Publication

